

DISCOVER YOUR TREASURES; MAKE YOUR IMPACT

Do you yearn to make a bigger difference in the world?
Are you ready to do something new and meaningful?

If so, join us for a workshop that supports women to maximize their social impact. This fun and creative process will reveal how easy it is to change the direction of the future.

WHEN: Sunday, October 2, 2016 from 1-6 p.m.

WHERE: Deborah's Palm, 555 Lytton Avenue, Palo Alto 94301

COST: $75 per person (light refreshments included)

WORKSHOP FACILITATORS

SUZANNE ANDREWS

Suzanne Andrews is Principal at Ripples Into Waves, where she feels most alive when she is supporting women to live from their deepest passion. As Founding Partner of Wingpact, she is co-author of the first book for women about angel investing, Impact With Wings. As Director of TechWomen at Anita Borg Institute, Suzanne built global relationships between women technical leaders. She is also a software engineer, a midwife's assistant and a proud mom.

DR. SHEILA BLISS DUFFY

Dr. Sheila Bliss Duffy equips people to make meaningful impacts in the world. Dr. Duffy expertly guides clients to clarify their purpose, envision their future and take steps to achieve it. Her expertise in food systems, business start-up and management and work with the The University of California, the US Peace Corps, and the World Wildlife Fund enable her to expertly build human capacity to address a broad range of economic, social and environmental challenges. Learn more at sustainableimpacts.com.

For more information or to register, contact Suzanne at suzanne@me.com or Sheila at sheila@sustainableimpacts.com.